

11+ 500 Words Vocabulary with Definitions

Word	Definition
Abode	The place someone calls home. This is usually a permanent place that they live and could be any type of shelter or habitat.
Abstract	A thought of something that does not physically exist and cannot be referenced by a concrete object.
Abundance	A large amount of something that is more than you require.
Acclaim	Celebrate or give praise to someone in a public environment.
Accolade	A way of honouring an achievement of a person or a place.
Accompany	To go with or alongside something or someone.
Achieve	To reach a goal or successfully reach a finishing point.
Acquiesce	Despite not wanting to agree to something, you would rather not accept.
Address	To share information to someone in a spoken or written medium.
Adhere	Sticking to something - this could be a thought or belief or something physically sticking to something else.
Adjacent	Very nearby or next to each other.
Admission	Stating that something is true.
Admonish	To advise against something and warn a person you do not think it is wise.
Adopt	To take something and follow or use it as your own.
Adverse	Something that can have a negative or unfavourable impact on an event.
Aggressive	Showing anger or carrying out something in a forceful way.
Agitate	To make someone feel uneasy.
Aid	To give or provide help.
Albeit	A conjunction that could be used in place of although.
Allure	To attract or charm someone or something.
Amateur	Someone who is new to an event or takes part as a hobby rather than a profession.

Please note that some words may have more than one definition. We have only used one definition for each word on this list so you may know of, or find others too!

Word	Definition
Ambrosial	Something that has a nice smell or taste.
Ample	A large amount that is adequate or more than adequate.
Antiquated	Something that is old and out-of-date - it might need modernising.
Apathy	Having little interest or a lack of emotion towards something.
Appreciate	To understand the value of something and be aware that it is there.
Apprehensive	Feeling nervous or cautious about something as you fear something bad might happen.
Arduous	Something that is hard and strenuous and might leave you feeling tired.
Argument	A disagreement involving two or more different viewpoints that oppose each other.
Arid	Dry land with no rain. This land is so dry that it would not be able to support plant life.
Artful	Clever and intelligent in what is being completed.
Articulate	Being able to speak and express ideas clearly and coherently.
Artisan	A person skilled in a trade or craft that requires them to work with their hands.
Ashamed	Feeling embarrassed or guilty about something you have done or said.
Assemble	Collect things or people into one place. You could assemble a group of people or objects.
Asunder	To divide or separate something into multiple pieces.
Attempt	To try or make an effort to do something that is difficult.
Augur	A sign of things to come in the future. This could be good or bad.
Austerity	Reduced spending and living without things as you increase frugality.
Aversion	A strong dislike towards something and the feeling of wanting to move or turn away from it.
Avoid	To not go near someone or something and to stay away.
Avuncular	Being welcoming and kind to someone who might have less experience than you or is younger.
Barbaric	Being cruel and unsophisticated in the way you are acting.

Please note that some words may have more than one definition. We have only used one definition for each word on this list so you may know of, or find others too!

Word	Definition
Banal	Nothing out of the ordinary - something very normal and boring.
Because	Due to or for this reason.
Beck	A gesture to direct someone or get them to do as you wish.
Becoming	Something that is suitable and has a nice appearance.
Bedfellow	A person or thing connected or collaborating with someone else on a specific project.
Belligerent	A hostile attitude that might result in fighting or arguments.
Bemoan	To be unhappy about something and to express that grief.
Benefit	Something that gives an advantage or has a positive impact and can help you out.
Benign	Something that has no negative effect and is not harmful.
Betray	Not being loyal and sharing information with an enemy or opposition.
Bewildered	Deeply confused and unable to decide what the right choice is.
Biased	Having a preference and acting in an unfair way due to this.
Blissful	Extremely happy with no sadness or discontent.
Blunder	A mistake that has been made due to a lack of care or consideration
Bolster	To offer support and strengthen someone or something.
Bravado	A display of courage intended to impress another person.
Brawn	Well-developed muscles and lots of physical strength.
Brusque	A manner of speech that can seem sharp and come across as impolite.
Cache	A hiding place to keep a collection of items safe.
Calamity	A disastrous problem that causes distress and misfortune.
Candid	An unplanned and honest expression.
Candidate	A person who is nominated for or applies for a position.
Career	A job which a person has trained for and progresses through during their life.
Charismatic	A charming person who compels other people.

Please note that some words may have more than one definition. We have only used one definition for each word on this list so you may know of, or find others too!

Word	Definition
Charming	A pleasing and pleasant quality.
Charred	When something has been badly burnt and reduced to charcoal.
Coerce	To convince or persuade someone to do something they do not wish to.
Coherent	Something that is clear and logically organised.
Colloquial	Not a formal style of language but one that is conversational and might be specific to a local area.
Combination	Joining two or more things together.
Comical	Something that is funny and provides people with amusement.
Commemorate	To remember and show respect for a person or event.
Compel	Pressuring or forcing someone to take a certain action.
Complex	Difficult and challenging often with lots of connected parts.
Compliance	Obeying an order and acting within given guidelines.
Comrade	A trusted friend who you have things in common with such as a job or hobbies.
Conceited	Having a high self-opinion and being too proud of your abilities.
Conclusion	The end or finale of something.
Conclusive	Proving something is certainly true and ending any doubt around a scenario.
Concur	Agreeing with another person and having the same opinion.
Condemn	Not approving of something and criticising it strongly.
Condone	To overlook and accept a behaviour or action that might be bad or illegal.
Conducive	Providing the conditions to make an outcome certain or highly likely.
Confiscated	Taking something away from someone when you have the right to do so.
Conjecture	An idea or opinion that is formed without solid evidence.
Consent	Permission from all parties involved to partake in an activity.
Consequently	The outcome of an event as a result of something else.
Consideration	Taking time to think about something before making a judgement or decision.

Please note that some words may have more than one definition. We have only used one definition for each word on this list so you may know of, or find others too!

Word	Definition
Conspire	To plot with others to secretly take an action that is wrong or illegal.
Consume	To use something.
Contagious	Something that can spread and move easily between people.
Contemporary	Exists in the current period of time.
Contrast	Items that differ greatly in an obvious way.
Contrite	Feeling apologetic for behaviour you know was not appropriate.
Conundrum	A difficult and confusing problem or puzzle.
Convict	A person who has been found guilty of a crime.
Cordial	Being warm and polite towards another person in a social situation.
Covet	Longing for something and having a strong desire to have it.
Coy	Acting in a shy and reserved manner.
Crass	Offensive in manner and showing no sensitivity toward a situation or other people.
Credit	Attribution of someone's efforts towards something.
Cunning	A deceitful character who plans to get what they want.
Curb	To restrain or stop something from happening.
Curious	Being interested and eager to learn something new.
Curt	Speaking briefly and coming across in a rude manner.
Dazzling	Something extremely bright and very beautiful. Something so bright that it can temporarily blind a person.
Debate	Discuss opposing arguments on a specific topic in a formal way.
Decline	To gradually go on a downwards trend.
Definite	Clearly defined without any ambiguity.
Defy	To go against an order and do something you have been told not to or that was unexpected.
Deject	Feeling disheartened and not having much hope.
Deluge	A very large amount of something - often water - causing a flood.

Please note that some words may have more than one definition. We have only used one definition for each word on this list so you may know of, or find others too!

Word	Definition
Demolish	To break something down or completely destroy it.
Demolished	To have knocked something down or completely destroyed it.
Demure	To act in a reserved and shy manner.
Depict	To represent or show something by a visual image.
Desist	To stop or suspend an activity.
Destitute	Extremely poor and lacking things such as food and shelter.
Develop	To change gradually and build or grow.
Devise	To come up with something such as a plan.
Devour	To destroy completely to the point where nothing is left at all.
Diction	The choice of words when speaking and the manner in which they are pronounced.
Digest	To break something down.
Digress	Stray from the main topic of conversation or writing and discuss something else.
Digression	Temporarily stray from the main topic of conversation or writing.
Diligent	Showing care in your work and working consistently with effort to achieve something.
Diluted	Has been weakened or thinned by something else.
Dim	Not bright and the levels of brightness might be insufficient.
Diminish	To reduce and to become less.
Discredit	Damage the reputation and refuse to believe it as being true.
Dishevelled	Untidy and very messy appearance.
Disinterested	Not having interest in something as it doesn't feel like you will benefit from it.
Dismal	Gloomy and sad with little hope.
Disperse	Spread out in different directions and scatter widely.
Divine	Connected with a god.
Docile	Can be easily persuaded or controlled.

Please note that some words may have more than one definition. We have only used one definition for each word on this list so you may know of, or find others too!

Word	Definition
Dogmatic	Asserting your own opinions as facts.
Domestic	Relating to home - whether this is a property, family or country.
Dormant	Slowed down and temporarily inactive.
Dose	A quantity or portion of something to be given.
Doubtful	Lacking certainty and not certain to be true.
Dour	Very serious and sullen.
Draconian	Very harsh and severe.
Dutiful	Obediently doing as you should and motivated to do so by a sense of duty.
Egoistical	Prioritising your own desires and having an emphasised sense of self-importance.
Elementary	The basic and introductory elements of a topic.
Eloquence	Speaking clearly with fluency and aptness.
Elucidate	Explaining something to make it easier to understand.
Embargo	A ban or order to prevent something from happening.
Embrace	Hold someone or something in your arms tightly.
Empire	A large group or organisation being run by one person.
Emulate	Copy the behaviour of another in an attempt to equal them or excel.
Endorse	Publicly approve or give support for something.
Endure	Keep going without stopping even when something is difficult or unpleasant.
Enterprise	A project or business being undertaken.
Enthuse	Have great interest in and be excited about something.
Entire	The whole amount of something with nothing left out.
Epiphany	A sudden realisation or moment of understanding.
Equivocate	Not speaking clearly and deliberately using vague language.
Era	A period of time that is marked by distinctive character or a prominent figure.

Please note that some words may have more than one definition. We have only used one definition for each word on this list so you may know of, or find others too!

Word	Definition
Erect	Assemble something into a vertical position.
Erratic	A lack of regularity and can be unpredictable.
Especially	Used to single something out and make it stand out.
Etiquette	Controlling yourself in a polite way and following the social rules.
Exaggerate	Overstate something and make it sound better or worse than it really is.
Exclaim	Sudden emotion of surprise or horror.
Facilitate	Make it easier for someone to complete an action.
Fact	Something that can be proven to be true and is known to exist or to have happened.
Famine	Extreme lack of food - not enough for the people in the area.
Fatal	Something that results in death.
Faux	A fake item that is made to look like something more valuable.
Feeble	Physically weak and lacking in strength.
Feign	Pretend or fake an illness or appearance to deceive someone.
Fiasco	Something humiliating that fails completely.
Figment	An imaginative idea that seems real but is not.
Figurative	A metaphorical idea that is not based on a literal meaning.
Flamboyant	Attracts attention due to being striking and confident.
Flattering	Giving lots of praise as you want to get something from someone.
Flawed	An imperfection in something, such as blemish or a fault.
Flawless	Something that is perfect and has no faults or problems.
Flee	To run away or to escape.
Fleet	A group of vehicles owned by an organisation.
Flimsy	Not made with substance and can be easily broken.
Flippant	A disrespectful attitude that doesn't take things seriously.
Flora	Plants that can be found in a particular place.

Please note that some words may have more than one definition. We have only used one definition for each word on this list so you may know of, or find others too!

Word	Definition
Flourish	To grow healthily and thrive.
Foe	A competitor or opponent.
Forebear	An ancestor who lived in the past.
Forlorn	Lonely and feeling separation from loved ones.
Foundation	The basis that something is built upon.
Fragment	A small piece of something that has broken off from the whole.
Frail	Delicate and easily broken.
Frantic	Acting in an unorganised way and emotionally uncontrolled.
Fraud	Deceiving a person for your own gain.
Fraudulent	Acting in a way that is intended to trick someone.
Frequent	Happening regularly at short intervals.
Frightful	Something which causes intense fear.
Front	The foremost part of a building, person or object.
Frugal	Careful with money and live without unnecessary items.
Fund	An amount of money saved for a specific purpose.
Fundamental	Something that is necessary - an essential basis or foundation.
Galvanise	To cause a person to suddenly take action through shock or excitement.
Garment	A piece of clothing.
Gauge	A way of measuring or calculating an amount.
Gilt	Something that has gold, or something that looks like gold on its surface.
Glib	Speaking without thinking and often without honesty despite speaking confidently.
Gloomy	A poorly lit space that is dim.
Glutton	Eating too much regularly and being excessively greedy.
Grandeur	Something that is impressive in size and very grand.
Grate	Break something down by rubbing two things together.

Please note that some words may have more than one definition. We have only used one definition for each word on this list so you may know of, or find others too!

Word	Definition
Gregarious	Someone who is well liked and enjoys the company of others.
Grotesque	A comically strange and unpleasant character.
Gung-ho	Very enthusiastic and energetic.
Habitat	A place that a person or thing calls home.
Halt	To stop moving or going somewhere.
Hamper	To prevent or restrict movement for others.
Handsome	A physically attractive person.
Harass	To repeatedly put pressure on or bother a person resulting in them being unhappy.
Heed	To listen carefully and give something your attention.
Helter-Skelter	Acting in an unorganised manner and doing something in a rush.
Heroic	Acting bravely and showing determination.
Hierarchical	Arranged in an order of hierarchy to reflect importance.
Hierarchy	An organisational system that ranks things in terms of their importance.
Hindsight	Recognising and understanding something once it has already happened.
Hoax	Something that is fake and has been set up to deceive people.
Holiday	A break from the usual routine where you can do as you please.
Holler	To shout or call out loudly.
Humane	Having compassion and kindness towards others.
Hypothetical	What you think might happen but you don't yet have the evidence to support this.
Idle	Being inactive or not being used.
Idol	Someone or something that is admired and respected.
Idyllic	Something that is beautiful and peaceful with little threat.
Immaculate	Something that is perfect and has no flaws.
Immerse	To be completely involved in something.
Impassive	Unresponsive and not showing any emotion towards what has happened.

Please note that some words may have more than one definition. We have only used one definition for each word on this list so you may know of, or find others too!

Word	Definition
Impede	Preventing a task from progressing or being completed.
Imperative	Urgent and requires immediate attention.
Inadequate	Not good enough or lacking in quality.
Incision	A cut in or through something caused by a sharp instrument.
Incline	A surface that is sloping upwards.
Inconsequential	Deemed low in importance and has little significance.
Incumbent	A person that holds a public office or an official post.
Identity	What makes a person them, e.g. facts about them or personality traits.
Inequity	Something that is unfair or when bias has been seen.
Inert	Lacking strength and being unable to move.
Infantile	Something that happens to or is suitable for a child.
Inferior	Has a lower status or is deemed less important than something else.
Inhale	Breathing inwards, taking air into your lungs.
Innocuous	Will cause no harm and is unlikely to upset anyone.
Insane	A state of mind that is not determined to be sound.
Insinuate	To suggest something but not directly say it.
Intangible	Something that is abstract and cannot be specifically described.
Interfere	To get involved in a situation you do not need to be part of.
Interrupt	To cause a break and stop an activity.
Inundate	To overwhelm and provide a large amount of things at the same time.
Ironic	Something having the opposite result of what was expected and causing humour.
Isolation	Cut off from others and completely alone.
Jargon	Terminology specific to a community that wouldn't make sense out of context.
Jurisprudence	Studying the law.
Keel	To collapse or overturn.

Please note that some words may have more than one definition. We have only used one definition for each word on this list so you may know of, or find others too!

Word	Definition
Labour	Hard and physical work.
Labyrinth	A confusing maze made up of passages that are hard to navigate.
Lackadaisical	Lacking enthusiasm and having a lack of interest.
Lair	An often secluded place where a wild and potentially dangerous animal lives.
Lament	Expressing sorrow, grief or mourning.
Languorous	Very still and lacking in mental or physical energy.
Latter	Towards or closer to the end of something than the beginning.
Lavish	Extravagant and more than is needed.
Liable	Having legal responsibility for something.
Libel	Inaccurate and damaging information that has been written about a person.
Liberate	Being free to make your own decisions and not under control of anyone else.
Liberty	Acting how you want and having the freedom to do so.
Lieu	In place of something else.
Limb	A body part that comes from the body, e.g. an arm or leg.
Linger	To hang around in a place for a long period.
Litigation	Settling an argument between two people by taking it to court.
Lexis	The words that make up a language.
Lodge	A small habitat where you stay temporarily.
Lofty	High up and tall.
Louche	Something that is questionable and not very moral or reliable.
Loyal	Supporting and being faithful to something regardless of circumstance.
Lunar	Something that relates to or resembles the moon.
Magnanimous	Being kind or forgiving towards an enemy or competitor.
Magnetic	Something that strongly attracts something else.

Please note that some words may have more than one definition. We have only used one definition for each word on this list so you may know of, or find others too!

Word	Definition
Malefactor	A person who violated the law by carrying out illegal activity.
Malevolent	Acting in a cruel way and wishing harm or evil on another.
Malingering	Avoiding work by exaggerating or pretending you have an illness.
Meagre	A small amount - very little in quantity.
Meander	Winding and aimless course.
Meant	Expressing an intention a person had.
Measly	A very small amount which is too small for purpose.
Meek	Gentle and soft natured. Willing to go along with others and will not disagree.
Melodious	Something that sounds nice and follows a tune.
Mercy	Showing compassion that leads to forgiveness.
Mere	Emphasising how small and simple something is.
Meticulous	Very precise and taking a lot of care.
Mock	To tease or laugh at someone or something.
Monochrome	Not using colour - only shades of black and white.
Moral	The standards you have of what is right and wrong.
Mortal	Ordinary and will not live forever.
Muse	Inspiration for a person who is creating art.
Myriad	A very high quantity.
Neat	Ordered and in good condition.
Necessary	An essential requirement for a specific result.
Nemesis	Something that can't be defeated and is always one step ahead.
Nirvana	A place of peace away from all suffering.
Nominal	A small cost.
Novice	New to an activity and has not experienced it before.
Oath	A promise, often made in law, to tell the truth.

Please note that some words may have more than one definition. We have only used one definition for each word on this list so you may know of, or find others too!

Word	Definition
Objection	Disagreeing and having a differing opinion.
Oblique	On a slant or angle.
Obtuse	Not sharp or alert with understanding.
Obviate	To predict a challenge and remove it in advance.
Oppress	Burdening a person or group of people and making them feel uncomfortable.
Ostentatious	Seeking to impress people with your wealth and using this to attract attention.
Overt	Obvious and not concealed away.
Palpable	Something right in front of you that can be perceived.
Palpitate	Heartbeat that is not regular. Faster than usual and usually due to excitement or nerves.
Pandemonium	Noisy situation with no order.
Pander	To act sensitively towards someone and give them what they want.
Paradox	Something that seems true but cannot be possible.
Parallel	Two things running alongside each other staying the same distance apart.
Paraphrase	Reword something using less words or in your own words.
Parody	A humorous style of work.
Parsimonious	Strict with money - unwilling to spend a large amount.
Peculiar	Different to the norm and can be seen as strange.
Pensive	Thinking deeply and carefully about something.
Perambulate	To walk leisurely with no rush and no destination.
Perjury	To lie when giving a testimony under oath in court.
Perplexed	Completely confused and puzzled by something.
Persona	The way someone is perceived based on how they present themselves. This is usually different from their true character.
Pestilence	A serious epidemic that kills lots of people and spreads quickly.

Please note that some words may have more than one definition. We have only used one definition for each word on this list so you may know of, or find others too!

Word	Definition
Petty	Something of little significance and isn't very important.
Petulant	Acting in a childish way and being irritated by something.
Picturesque	Beautiful to look at and looks like art.
Pioneer	One of the first people to do something.
Pivotal	An important and critical part of something that determines the outcome.
Placid	Very calm and laid back.
Platitude	Not very exciting and happens a lot.
Pleasing	Something agreeable that has an enjoyable outcome.
Pledge	A promise of something.
Plight	A bad situation that is often unpleasant and can be dangerous.
Plunge	To move something quickly and forcibly into something else.
Pragmatic	A sensible solution acting reasonably and logically.
Preposterous	Shocking news or behaviour that seems completely unreasonable.
Pompous	Displaying self-importance and having an elevated view of yourself over others.
Ponder	To think about something and consider it carefully.
Porous	Has lots of small holes that liquids and gases can pass through.
Posit	To present information as a fact or something that is assumed to be true.
Pragmatic	Behaving in a sensible way after thinking things through practically.
Prattle	To talk for a long time in a childish way makes little sense.
Precocious	Being ahead of others for your age group developmentally.
Predator	An animal that kills and eats other animals for survival.
Prejudice	Having an opinion that might not be true without gaining all of the facts.
Presumptuous	Showing little respect by overstepping boundaries that have been set.
Pretence	A claim or false appearance to make people believe something.
Procure	To get or obtain something from someone else.
Profess	To declare something as true.

Please note that some words may have more than one definition. We have only used one definition for each word on this list so you may know of, or find others too!

Word	Definition
Profit	Money that is left over from a business after all the money you spent has been deducted.
Proportion	The amount of something in comparison to the whole.
Proverb	A short sentence or couple of sentences that share a story of advice.
Provoke	To cause someone to behave in an angry way.
Prudent	Acting carefully and thoughtfully.
Public	Not private and can be accessed by anyone.
Puncture	A small hole in something made by something sharp.
Quintessential	A normal and regular example of something.
Quiver	To shake due to emotions.
Ramble	A gentle walk for pleasure - often walking around aimlessly.
Ramification	The result of an event and the actions you might have to take due to this.
Ransack	Stealing from somewhere causing a mess as you search through for items to steal.
Rare	Something that is uncommon and does not happen or appear often.
Ratify	Signing something to agree with the terms set out.
Ravenous	Very hungry and needing to eat soon.
Recite	Speak something out loud from memory without using any notes.
Reel	A cylinder shape that is used for storing string.
Refuse	Denying and being unwilling to accept or participate in something.
Regurgitate	To repeat information that has been given to you.
Relish	To love doing something and enjoy the experience.
Remnant	A small part of something that is left over and unused.
Repel	To reject something and forcefully back away from it.
Repent	To be sorry and apologetic about something you have done.
Reproach	Disappointed in someone and blame them for a negative outcome.
Rhyme	Words that sound similar due to their ending sounds.

Please note that some words may have more than one definition. We have only used one definition for each word on this list so you may know of, or find others too!

Word	Definition
Rigmarole	A long and drawn out process that is complicated to complete.
Roam	To aimlessly wander from place to place.
Rogue	Dishonest and unpredictable.
Rowdy	A loud and boisterous environment or person.
Rubric	Instructions that are given about how something should be done.
Rural	An area away from built up areas like the city and more of a countryside environment.
Sacred	A holy object that should be respected.
Sacrifice	To give something up for something else.
Sane	Sensible and of a healthy mind.
Sarcasm	Using words in a humorous way to mock something.
Sarcastic	Mocking someone by using words in a humorous way to mean the opposite of what you are saying.
Scenic	Beautiful to look at and often natural.
Score	To earn a point in a game or competition against another person or team.
Seize	Take an opportunity either forcibly or with excitement.
Self-effacing	Not drawing attention to yourself and acting modestly.
Semantics	Understanding the meaning of something.
Seraph	An angel held in high regard.
Serenity	Being calm and peaceful without stress or worry.
Sermon	A religious speech often with sections of the Bible.
Shambolic	Disorganised and disastrous.
Shenanigans	Mischievous behaviour often to deceive someone.
Shrine	A place devoted to someone who is respected.
Shrink	To get smaller in size.
Significant	Something that is important and noticeable to others.
Simile	Comparing one thing to another using the words 'like' or 'as'.

Please note that some words may have more than one definition. We have only used one definition for each word on this list so you may know of, or find others too!

Word	Definition
Simulacrum	A reputation or something or someone with something else.
Sincere	Honest and with genuine feelings or emotion.
Slacken	To loosen something and make it less intense.
Slander	Speak negatively about someone and damage their reputation. The information given is usually untrue.
Slang	Informal type of language that can be specific to an area or group of people.
Sleek	Something that has a smooth and good appearance.
Sly	Acting in a cunning and deceptive manner.
Solitude	Lonely and isolated with little socialisation.
Sombre	Having a deep sadness.
Sonnet	A 14 line verse written in a particular pattern and rhythm.
Sow	Plant seeds to grow and produce food.
Special	Not something you would see every day and has a greater purpose.
Spiteful	Acting in a nasty way to upset or hurt another person.
Squabble	An argument about something unimportant.
Squalor	Living conditions that are dirty and unpleasant.
Stagnant	A pool of water that is standing still and not flowing.
Stance	Someone's position or view on something.
Stanza	A paragraph or group of lines in a poem.
Static	Something that is staying still and not having any changes.
Status quo	The current situation and the way things are.
Stoical	Never showing your feelings
Stoop	To bend over and have slouched head and shoulders.
Stout	Something that is thick and is very strong.
Stretched	Something that is pulled to its limit and can't handle any more pressure.
Stubborn	Set in their way and unwilling to try anything other than what they want.

Please note that some words may have more than one definition. We have only used one definition for each word on this list so you may know of, or find others too!

Word	Definition
Subterranean	Something that exists out of sight under the earth's surface.
Succinct	Straight to the point and clear in meaning.
Succumb	To give in to something and stop resisting.
Sufficient	Something that is good enough and will be enough for the purpose.
Summit	The top of or the highest part.
Supercilious	Thinking you are above others and acting in a way that reflects this.
Superfluous	Something that is excessive and is a lot more than is required.
Superior	Better than something else or of higher status.
Surmount	To overcome a challenge you have been having.
Suspect	A person who is thought to have committed a crime, however, this hasn't been confirmed.
Susurration	A small stirring sound, like a whisper.
Sycophant	A person that flatters those of higher status to try and gain from them.
Symbol	A mark or sign that represents something else.
Symmetry	Something that has two matching halves.
Taint	A small amount of something bad in something else.
Tardy	Running slow and arriving later than expected.
Taut	Pulled tight.
Temptation	The desire to do something you know you shouldn't.
Tentative	Hesitant to do something as you are unsure.
Thrust	Suddenly push something in a specific direction.
Tomorrow	The day that follows the day you are currently on.
Tranquil	Peaceful and calm. A place where you will not be disturbed.
Transcendent	Goes beyond the normal limits and exceeds everything you thought possible.
Trivia	Small bits of information that are not important.
Twilight	As the sun is setting just before it gets completely dark.

Please note that some words may have more than one definition. We have only used one definition for each word on this list so you may know of, or find others too!

Word	Definition
Tyrant	A ruler who leads in their own way without law and often in a cruel way.
Ubiquitous	Seeming to appear everywhere at the same time.
Uncaring	Having a lack of interest and concern towards something.
Uniform	Something that is regular and always remains the same.
Union	Joining a group of things together to make one.
Universal	Something that applies to everyone everywhere.
Unorthodox	Something that is different to the traditional or expected way of doing things.
Unrequited	Giving something but not having it returned.
Untoward	Something unexpected and unfortunate.
Valiantly	Acting with determination and persevering when something is difficult.
Vapour	Small drops of liquid that appear as a cloud.
Vast	Very big.
Vaticinate	Make a prediction about what is going to happen in the future.
Veil	A thin piece of material used to cover the face.
Ventilation	The circulation of fresh air.
Vessel	A boat or a ship that is large in size.
Vicarious	Experiencing things through another person.
Vile	Very unpleasant.
Vixen	A female fox.
Voluminous	Something that is very large and bulky.
Weary	Feeling tired either mentally or physically.
Weird	Something unusual and different to what is expected.
Whimsical	Something that is playful and unpredictable. Often impractical.
Whinging	Persistently complaining about something small.
Wholesome	Something good for you that can improve your life.
Wilful	Intentionally carrying out a damaging act.

Please note that some words may have more than one definition. We have only used one definition for each word on this list so you may know of, or find others too!

Word	Definition
Wistful	Longing for something from the past.
Wit	Being sharp and clever with words.
Wither	Drying up and disappearing.
Witticism	A witty comment.
Witty	Being quick and clever with words for a humorous effect.
Worthy	Having value and being deserving of something.
Wound	An open injury to your body.
Yacht	A boat that is often used for sailing.
Yield	The amount of produce that is created.
Zestful	Having a lot of enthusiasm.
Zeitgeist	The opinions and beliefs people have at a specific period in time.

Please note that some words may have more than one definition. We have only used one definition for each word on this list so you may know of, or find others too!